Meet Ms. Mortgages - Your Mortgage Matchmaker Home loans can feel like decoding hieroglyphics while climbing Everest. But fear not! I'm Ms. Mortgages, your go-to guide through the wild world of lending, proudly matchmaking dream homes with dream loans on Sydney's Lower North Shore. With 20+ years of banking experience under my belt, I make sense of the nonsense, cut through the fine print, and fight the good fight with lenders to get you the right deal (and maybe even a better rate than your neighbour's). Whether you're a first-home dreamer or refinancing pro, I'll turn "maybe someday" into "keys in hand." And when I'm not playing Cupid with home loans, you'll find me giving back—supporting inclusive education, volunteering with the school P&C, or helping feed Sydney's homeless with Will2Live.Let's chat, laugh, and loan smart.
